'May I extend my thanks to Bill Whillock and Craig Cain for the support given on the Credit Suisse project. It was one with demanding timescales and requirements and I'm pleased to say we are fast approaching its successful completion. We will of course keep Commtech in mind for any other projects that may require Completion Manager Services.'

Paul Wenham, Assistant Vice President, Credit Suisse

In a ceremony held within the renovated wing of the Kings Building, Commtech was presented with an award for their contribution to the success of the project by the Principal of Kings College London. The ceremony was attended by the project's professional team, BLL project management team and representatives of the various trades. Warren Glaister, the project's manager described the team as the best he has ever worked with.
