

London Bridge Tower – Shard of Glass

Location:

London Bridge

Type of Contract:

Client Building Services Design Management
Building Services Validation Management

Approved Contract Period:

Date commenced: February 2007

Date of completion: October 2011

Financial Details:

Contract Value: £ ongoing

Construction Value: £300m +

Client:

Teighmore Ltd

Consultants:

Architect:

Renzo Piano

M&E Consultants:

Arup

Cost Consultant:

Davis Langdon LLP

Structural Engineer:

WSP Cantour Seinuk

The Shard is a 72 storey mixed-use tower, comprising a substantial office element plus retail, restaurants, a Shangri-La Hotel and high quality residential accommodation, set above a new piazza and concourse at London Bridge station.

On completion, it will be the tallest building in Europe and become a new symbol for London.